

■ Dayuan Bilingual Time — Special Episode: “Everyone Shines Differently”

Opening Music – (Dayuan Bilingual Time theme song + short drumbeat from “Bad Guy”)

Patty: Open your ears!

Simon: Open your mind!

Together: Let's speak, share, and shine!

Simon:  Simon

Patty: And I'm Patty!

Simon: That's right — today we'll talk about people who learn, move, or think in different ways, but are just as awesome as everyone else!

A horizontal bar consisting of 24 black squares. The first 13 squares are grouped together by a short horizontal line, while the remaining 11 squares are grouped together by a longer horizontal line.

Part 1 – What is a Special Student?

Patty: [REDACTED]

Simon: In English we say special students or students with special needs.

Simon: Tourette  tics

Patty:

Simon: Right! It's just their body's way of saying "hello!" (laughs)

Part 2 – Billie Eilish: A Singer with Tourette Syndrome

Simon: Of course! She's so cool! She wrote "Bad Guy"!

████ 5 █████ “Bad Guy” █████ / hum █████ █████

Patty: [REDACTED]

Simon: That's right — she used her music to say, "It's OK to be different."

Part 3 – How Can We Be Good Friends to Special Students?

Patty:

Simon: Number one, ████ — Don't laugh when they have tics.

Patty: Number two, ■■■ — Be patient and kind.

Simon: Number three, invite them to play games or eat lunch together ■

Part 4 – Mini Quiz Time!

Patty: ■■■■■ Ready ■

Simon: Question 1

Patty: (Together pause) Tourette syndrome ■

Simon: Question 2 Tourette syndrome

Patty: Billie Eilish ■

Simon: Question 3

Patty: Be kind, be patient, and be a friend ■

Closing – Together We Shine

Simon: Remember, everyone is different, but everyone can shine ■

Patty:  100%

“Bad Guy” 5

Together: Two languages, one big heart.

From Dayuan to the world — See you next time!